

Novartis v. Union of India

This is a third-party open dataset summary. The Supreme Court rejected Novartis' patent application for its anti-cancer drug Glivec, strictly interpreting Section 3(d) of the Patents Act to prevent the 'evergreening' of patents by pharmaceutical companies for minor modifications.